INTENSIVE SUMMER OPERA TRAINING PROGRAM

LROW is a "boutique" program, unique in that it offers an intimate, in-depth opera immersion focused on the performer – there is no big set design. Our faculty works in an integrated fashion, and emerging singers are focused entirely on preparing an opera, the training directed to learning, staging and performing a particular role. Unencumbered by theatrical trappings, we focus on musical excellence, the refined use of language, nuanced performance craft and telling a compelling, multidimensional story.

Monday, June 1 – Saturday, June 27, 2019
